Join the Fairfax Open Space Committee and Nick Nutu on April 29th, to go on an informative foraging hike in search of plants to use in smudge sticks and dream pillows. The hike will be approximately 1.5 hours long and we will learn about all the available ceremonial plants in our open spaces. Please email the chairperson of the Open Space Committee, Lauren Hinxmann, at lhinxmann@nUSD.org if you have any questions.

- Nick Nutu will be your amazing guide. He has trained with Mia Andler, author of Bay Area Forager .
- The hike will be about a moderate 2-mile walk.
- We will meet at Peri Park at 10:00 am, where we will caravan to the Cascade Canyon Open Space hiking area to begin our journey.

Price is by a suggested energy donation, $15-$20, although no one will be turned away for inability to pay.
